

May you be all well throughout the Eid ul Fitr Holidays

Assalaamu Alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh

Dear ZIL Family

On behalf of the Management Committee, I would like to convey our heartfelt Eid greetings to all of our employees in the Sales Field, Factory and Head Office, working from home, during this extraordinary period of pandemic.

May Allah Almighty shower His choicest blessings upon you and your loved ones, and may He grant you the highest level of happiness and joy on this auspicious day, Ameen.

This happy occasion is also an opportunity to express our deep appreciation and gratitude for all the dedication and support of all the employees of ZIL Limited and their families.

A special mention needs to be made of our Sales Field that accomplished results and continue to do so and Factory management and workforce and Head Office staff and management for their continuous support to ensure efficient operations. Our Employees have not only carried out their respective planned tasks well but also worked to provide necessary assistance, advise and counseling to people affected by the pandemic.

Let us pray Almighty Allah accepts all our ibaadah and efforts during the holy month and grants us peace, prosperity, progress, and above all, bring an end to the sufferings of all types due to this pandemic. May Allah SWT be our constant Guide and Protector at all times – Ameen.

Eid Mubarak

Stay- Safe

Regards

Mubashir Ansari
Director & CEO